

The Ultimate Death Notice

Who wouldn't be overjoyed to be related to this fellow?

CAMPBELL, David Emmanuel.—January, 13, 1949, at the Mater Misericordiae private hospital, late of 204 Falcon Street, North Sydney (ex 1st A.I.F., 1st Aust. Light Horse), beloved husband of Dorothy and father of Lorraine and Ronald, second son of late Wallace and Georgina Campbell, of Mosman, brother of Drummond (captain, 2nd A.I.F.), Reginald (sgt., 2nd A.I.F.), George (deceased) (1st A.I.F., 1st Aust. Light Horse), Wallace, Claude, Lorna, Grace, Dorothy, Harold (deceased), and nephew of G. P. Campbell (ex N.S.W. Lancers) and Mrs. G. P. Campbell and family, of Balgowlah, grandson of the late Captain John and Elizabeth Campbell, of Cromla, Roseville Park, Middle Harbour, great-grandson of the late George and Francis Peat, of Fairview Park, Peat's Ferry, Hawkesbury River, and great-grandson of the late Captain Sir Charles Peat, R.N., of Grosvenor Square, London, aged 50 years. Interred January 15, 1949, Presbyterian portion, Northern Suburbs Cemetery.

(Sydney Morning Herald, 19 Jan 1949, p28)